WOMEN OF ACHIEVEMENT, the oldest ongoing program in the St. Louis area whose mission is to honor and recognize the volunteer service and leadership of women, is announcing its call for nominations. Celebrating its 60th anniversary next year, Women of Achievement considers nominees with substantial volunteer impact in areas such as education, arts, health and human services, youth and family, philanthropy, social justice and advocacy, which just about covers the waterfront of volunteerism.

Deadline for nominations is midnight Monday, Jan. 5. Nominations may be submitted online or via email, fax or regular mail to MAC Meetings and Events, 801 N. Second Street, Suite 302, St. Louis, MO 63102.

Online submissions and printable nomination forms with full details are available at woastl.org. Nanci A. Bobrow, president of Women of Achievement, can be reached at 314-361-5567 to field questions about the nomination process. I am sure you will find some good candidates among your friends – and let me tell you, you may nominate yourself.

The 10 honorees selected will be recognized at a luncheon Tuesday, May 5, at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel in Clayton.

I look forward to seeing all of you there, as a guest, not as an honoree, silly.
