

SOCIETY
laduelips

Don't be a mean Grinch this holiday season, share your smile—and your holiday bounty—with St. Louisans in need! Bring a bagful of canned items like tuna, chicken, corn, green beans, mixed vegetables and peaches to LADUE NEWS this Friday, Dec. 20, from 1 to 4:30 p.m. to get your photo taken with LN elves and a chance to be featured in an upcoming issue. Donations benefit FOOD OUTREACH, an organization serving free, nutritious meals to those with HIV/AIDS or cancer. The organization, which serves 2,000 St. Louis-area residents a year, also seeks electric can openers, blenders, toiletries (toothbrush, toothpaste, deodorant, shampoo) and gas cards for its meal home-delivery program. Items will be collected at Ladue News in the Colonial Marketplace (170 and Ladue Roads) through Monday, Dec. 23.

One of LN's friendly elves, staff writer Julie Christensen

The CITY OF CLAYTON now has another tool for residents and visitors alike: a new mobile app that guides users to the city's dining, shopping and entertainment destinations. Every Clayton merchant has a complimentary listing on the site, which includes contact information, hours of operation and other business details. The free app is available in the Apple iTunes App Store and Google Play Store.

Do you know a woman who exemplifies community service through voluntary contributions and volunteer leadership?

WOMEN OF ACHIEVEMENT currently is accepting nominations for its 2014 class of honorees. Nomination forms are available online at woastl.org, or by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Women of Achievement, c/o MAC Meetings and Events, 801 N. 2nd St., Suite 320, 63102. The deadline for submissions is Jan. 13. The 2014 class will be honored during a May 15 luncheon at The Ritz-Carlton.

Congratulations to Women of Achievement Class of '74 honoree KATIE WRIGHT, who has received yet another accolade for her lifelong work as an educator. Wright recently was inducted into the Eleanor Roosevelt Chapter of education honor society Kappa Delta Pi for her service and for exemplifying the society's ideals and excellence in education.

Do you know a woman who exemplifies community service through voluntary contributions and volunteer leadership?

WOMEN OF ACHIEVEMENT currently is accepting nominations for its 2014 class of honorees. Nomination forms are available online at woastl.org, or by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Women of Achievement, c/o MAC Meetings and Events, 801 N. 2nd St., Suite 320, 63102. The deadline for submissions is Jan. 13. The 2014 class will be honored during a May 15 luncheon at The Ritz-Carlton.

Congratulations to Women of Achievement Class of '74 honoree KATIE WRIGHT, who has received yet another accolade for her lifelong work as an educator. Wright recently was inducted into the Eleanor Roosevelt Chapter of education honor society Kappa Delta Pi for her service and for exemplifying the society's ideals and excellence in education.