Women of Achievement 2015 luncheon chair Karen Castellano, president Nanci Bobrow and vice-president Joni Karandjeff

Next year marks 60 years for the WOMEN OF ACHIEVEMENT Award, the longest-running program in St. Louis whose sole mission is to honor and recognize volunteer service and leadership by local women. Nominations are now being accepted for the Class of 2015, who will be honored during a luncheon at The Ritz-Carlton on Tuesday, May 5. To nominate someone, visit woastl.org/nominate.php and fill out a form. Nominations will be accepted through Monday, Jan. 5. Ladue News is a proud presenting sponsor of the 2015 Women of Achievement Luncheon.
