CRITERIA FOR SELECTION

- Must have a record of achievement and leadership in one or more areas of volunteer service within the St. Louis metropolitan region.
- Must have made an outstanding or extraordinary contribution as a volunteer, over and above her professional responsibilities, that has helped to address a pertinent need, problem or issue, or has made a difference that improves the quality of life for others within the metro St. Louis area.
 - Distinguish between VOLUNTEER and professional work; discuss nominee's volunteer service, not her professional career. Is her volunteer work part of her job?
 - Describe current activities, including dates.
 - Note how nominee has gone above and beyond service in volunteering; what distinguishes her from other volunteers?
 - Discuss the length and breadth of volunteer service, including leadership roles (i.e. Director, Chair, Co-Chair, Board Member; include details and responsibility of position).
 - Highlight how nominee's volunteer services had an inspirational impact on the community. How many lives did she touch? What difference did she make?
 - Is she a woman with vision; did she see a gap in services and develop a program to fill that gap?
 - Did she perceive a problem and find a solution? Did she collaborate?
 - Does she have charisma? Does she motivate others to join her? Is she a catalyst for change?

Nominations online are preferred. Document the service performed and the impact that service has had on individuals or organizations in the metro region. Be specific, including the length of service and the innovation, leadership, and extent of the volunteerism on which the Women of Achievement Award is based. Please be concise and do not attach additional information. Do not send multiple forms. One nomination is sufficient. The total nomination should not exceed TWO pages or 6,000 characters. Use the next two pages for your narrative and description of your nominee's inspirational volunteer services.
